

Bestiality, tentacles, straight-shota, lesbians... they're all convenient substitutes; A comfortable way to watch women get aroused without the distracting guilt-trip of seeing a man getting involved. This is just a psychological hang-up I have. I enjoy bestial themes in the same way I enjoy tentacle porn. I don't watch it for the tentacles. I watch it to see a woman get overwhelmed and aroused by something relentless. Their arousal becomes my arousal.

For the longest time, I didn't even realize that I was incorporating elements of this fetish into my works. In my mind it wasn't "real" sex, it was just a girl getting turned on by being licked.

Many years later, I stumbled across an interesting online discussion about the subject and discovered something peculiar: People who claim to be interested in this concept might actually be talking about two very different things. I would describe it as "voyeuristic" interest VS "vicarious" interest. Wanting to see something is definitely not the same as wanting to do something.

My interest is voyeuristic.

- How did you get into bestiality
- Have you had sexual interactions with animals before, and if so, what kind of animals. Could the people who like bestiality please answer those questions.
